Processing of personal data

IDA is legally required, under the Data Protection Act, to inform you of the registration and utilisation of the data you provide IDA with. The data, which is treated as confidential, will be registered in IDA's member system. IDA is entitled to obtain address details from "Centrale Personregister" (The Central Register of Personal Data). The information is registered in order to enable IDA to provide you with the best possible advice and to be able to look after your interests. IDA does not pass on your personal data to any third party unless such divulgence is sanctioned by law; passing on such data would be in order to ensure providing you with the best services, including the administration of collective agreements, pension schemes, insurance coverage or discounts. In such instances, information is passed on to IDA's cooperating partners e.g. public authorities, insurance companies, bank direct debit services, professional organizations, collective agreement partners and "Ingeniøren" (the magazine). By signing this form, you are giving your consent to this registration and handling of personal data. You can, at any time, view and update the registered information by contacting us. For more information on IDA's policy on personal data click ida.dk

Bylaws and regulations

I would like to become a member of IDA. I have read the Society's bylaws and regulations: IDA's Lov og vedtægter; which I, as a member, am obligated to abide by in its current form as well as for amendments that could be entered at a later point. I am aware that amendments to IDA's bylaws and regulations are published at ida.dk and by such publication are considered proclaimed to members. I declare that the information I have provided is accurate.
